

Miller & Rhoads

BROAD STREET—TWO ENTRANCES—SIXTH STREET.

50c and 75c Imported White Mercerized
Madras 25c Yd.

Without doubt the greatest values in white goods at 25c yard we have ever shown.

Beautiful patterns in Dots, Stripes, Basket Weaves, Chevrot Weaves, both plain and figured; big Damask patterns, &c.

An importer's stock was closed out at a sacrifice.
We secured a goodly share of it.

New Batiste Lawns 12½c Yard

Extra fine cloth with neat dots, rings and small patterns.
White grounds with Black, Blue, Pink, and Red printing.
There's an unusual demand this season for these lawns.

May Manton Patterns 10c each, on sale in Trimming Department.

ARE DECIDED BY FEDERAL COURT

Opinions in Several Interesting Cases Are Handed Down.

BUT ONE CASE ARGUED

This Came From the Circuit Court at Charleston—The Bottle Case To-day.

The United States Circuit Court of Appeals reconnvened yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, with the following cases slated: Circuit Judges Goff and Pritchard and District Judge Morris.

The court announced and handed down its opinion in the following cases: No. 514. Jesse Rosenthal, et al., appellants, vs. John T. McGraw, receiver of Betman, Watson, et al., appellees. Appeal from the Circuit Court at Parkersburg, W. Va. Opinion by Judge Pritchard. Reversed, with costs and causes remanded with directions to modify the decree below.

No. 556. William Henry Master and claimant of steamship "Venezuela," appellants, vs. scholar "Lily," appellee. Appeal from the District Court at Baltimore. Md. Opinion by Judge Waddill. Affirmed, with costs.

No. 557. Thomas Bruce, petitioner, appellant, vs. William Shippard Bras, attorney-general of Maryland, et al., appellees: habeas corpus.
Appeal from the Circuit Court at Baltimore.
Md. Opinion by Judge Goff. Not curiam.
Affirmed, with costs.

No. 557. Barge "A. Denick," appellant, vs.
M. McKinn & Co., appellees. Appeal from District Court at Norfolk, Va. Opinion by Judge Goff. Reversed, with costs and remand.

One Case Argued.

The following case was argued yesterday:
No. 578. Stuart Wood, appellant, vs. W. H.
Deakin, et al., appellees. Appeal from the Circuit Court at Charleston, W. Va. Argued by Malcolm Jackson for the appellant, and by George E. Price, C. C. Watts, of Charlestown, W. Va., and John C. Rose, of Baltimore, Md., for the appellees.

No. 584. P. B. Bailey, appellant, vs.
Thomas F. Wilford, appellee. Appeal from the Circuit Court at Charlotte, N. C. Rehearing denied.

The following case is in the call to-day by special assignment:

No. 586. Imperial Bottle Cap and Machine Company, et al., appellants, vs. Crown Cork and Seal Company, appellees. Appeal from the Circuit Court at Baltimore. To be argued by Hector T. Feltner, of Philadelphia, Pa., and John E. Semmes, of Baltimore, Md., for the appellants, and by Robert H. Packinson, of Chicago, Ill., and John C. Rose, of Baltimore, Md., for the appellees.

DR. WILLETT COMING.

Distinguished Lecturer of Chicago Will Deliver Discourses.

The Disciples of Christ in Richmond have recently arranged a series of lectures to be delivered in the Seventh Street Christian Church by Professor Herbert L.
Willett, of Chicago.

Dr. Willett is professor of Semitic languages and literature in the University of Chicago, and has acquired an exceptional reputation as a platform lecturer.
He is one of the strongest pulp speakers among the Disciples of Christ in the United States, and he is now giving, under the auspices of the university, courses of systematic lectures on the literature, history and interpretation of the Bible.
Dr. Willett is a man of wide culture, ample scholarship and impressive personality. The lectures are entirely underestimated, and the public is invited to hear him for the week of his lectures in our city. He will speak every evening

Become a Stockholder —In the—

Southern Interstate Bank

To Be Organized With an Authorized Capital of $1,000,000.

Shares $1.00 Each.

This Bank stock offers an unusual opportunity for a safe and profitable investment. Stock may be paid for in ten monthly installments. Subscriptions received from $10 upward. Blank and particulars furnished on application to S. G. Gales, Chairman of Organization Committee, 737 East Main Street, Second floor.

Don't miss the opportunity.

of the week of May 22d in the Seventh Street Christian Church. The subject of this course will be Studies in the Life of Christ, and the subjects of the evenings are as follows:

The Gospel Records—A Study of the Four Gospels.
The Preparation of the World for Christianity and of Jesus for His Ministry.
Outline and Chronology of Jesus's Ministry.
The Teachings of Jesus.
The Miracles of Jesus.
The Programme of Jesus.

JOYCE TO BE ORATOR.

Randolph-Macon Alumni Will Hear an Eloquent Associate.

The Randolph-Macon Alumni Association has been called to meet at the office of Dr. Thomas D. Merrick, No. 400 East Franklin Street, to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock. A matter of great interest to the alumni will come up for consideration, and the presence of as many as possible is desired. Arrangements will be completed for the annual meeting and banquet, the time and place to be selected.

The association has invited Rev. William H. H. Joyce, of Luray, Va., to make the address at the annual banquet, and that gentleman has accepted. Mr. Joyce is a brilliant orator, and won the Suther-lin medal in 1888 over many competitors, the Washington society medal and other honors. His address is now being announced, but those who know him expect a fine oration.

DOUBLE FUNERAL TO-DAY

Frederick William Hill and Wife Will Rest Together in Oakwood.

The funeral of Frederick William Hill, and of Mrs. Hill, his wife, will take place to-morrow at 11 o'clock from Mount Methodist Church. The bodies will be buried together in Oakwood cemetery. Mr. Hill was a brilliant orator, and won the Suther-lin medal in 1888 over many competitors,
the Washington society medal and other honors. His address is now being announced, but those who know him expect
a fine oration.

Martin Next to Mahone.

Postmaster C. T. Berkland, of Danville, one of the best known Republicans in State, was a visitor in Richmond yesterday, and called to see Postmaster Wray.
Mr. Berkland is now serving his second term as postmaster at Danville, and has about fourteen months yet to go. His commission expires. He says he will leave there at the end of the year.
The tragedy that resulted in the death of both husband and wife has created intense sympathy in Richmond and in Henrico county, and doubtless there will be an immense gathering at the funeral services.

Will Help Their Sick.
In order to raise a fund to help some of their sick employees, the street railway men of the various departments of the Virginia Passenger and Power Company have arranged a benefit entertainment, with Edison's Moving Pictures, at the Casino, on Monday night, May 15th.

In most cases the motion picture and conductors pass subscription papers among themselves and raise money for sick men, but there are at times a number of very needy cases that will require continued help, and the public is appealed to that the entertainment may be a financial success.

The receivers of the Virginia Passenger and Power Company have given the free use of the theatre and provided the Edison kintograph machine and the films for the entertainment, and it is hoped that the following telegram will be a financial success to this unusually worthy appeal from our street car men.

Came to See a City.

An excursion party from Danville, numbering about two hundred persons, arrived in the city Tuesday evening and spent the day here, leaving at 5:40 yesterday for their home. Among the visitors were many well-known Danville men. The of the favorable opportunity to dry their throats, and not a few took "rations" home with them.

Governor Improving.

Governor Montague, with Mrs. Montague, arrived at Chase City in good shape Tuesday afternoon, and the Governor's condition is improving.
He sent the following telegram to Mr.
D. A. Ritchie, his private secretary, yesterday:
"Stood trip well. Feeling stronger this morning."

The Governor will return here Monday.

Talk of Mr. Tucker.

A gentleman from the upper section of the State who has been here for several days, suggests the name of Hon.
Clayton St. George Tucker for President of the Jamestown Exposition Company.
"It is a matter in which all the people of Virginia are interested," he said, and I believe Mr. Tucker would make an admirable successor to General Lee."

To Have Trolley Party.

Rev. Preston Cave, pastor of the Third Baptist Church, is holding a revival meeting in Petersburg.
The Christian Endeavor Society of the Church will run a trolley party to the Cokeville City to-morrow night to attend the meeting.

Will Address Mothers' Club.

Professor S. C. Mitchell will address the West End Kindergarten Mothers' Club this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock on "Mothers as Character Builders." The lecture will be delivered in the kindergarten rooms, and all interested in child training are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. Harry Ficke, buyer for Rothert and Company, is in New York attending the large carpet sale.

IN BONDS!

BATTALION HAS ANNUAL OUTING

Blues Spend Day at Westhampton Celebrating Their Anniversary.

RINGING SPEECHES MADE

Lieutenant-Governor Willard

Roundly Cheered—Help Towards Armory Promised.

The Richmond Light Infantry Blues celebrated yesterday for the one hundred and twelfth time, according to their records, the anniversary of their foundation. According to precedent, they went for a day's outing, this time the place being Westhampton Park, the use of which, together with the cars which carried the two companies and the drum corps, having been given by the Passenger and Power Company through General Manager Huff.

As usual, the morning was spent in athletic exercises, such as base-ball, bowling and rowing, after which the annual shoot for the trophy, which is held for one year by the best marksmen, was held.

This trophy is in the shape of a huge medal, which has been the property of the Blues since the year 1780, having been shot for each year since that date.

This year it was won by Dr. Charles Edwards, who was also the best shot last year.

About 3 o'clock the trumpets sounded

"Roast Beef," and about ninety of the active Blues and an equal number of the old members and civilian friends marched into the pavilion, where Meats served a dinner, which was followed by the annual dinner, which was followed by the an-

nu-
al dinner, which was followed by the an-

nu-
al dinner, which was followed by the an-

nu-
al dinner, which was followed by the an-

nu-
al dinner, which was followed by the an-

nu-
al dinner, which was followed by the an-

nu-
al dinner, which was followed by the an-

nu-
al dinner, which was followed by the an-

nu-
al dinner, which was followed by the an-

nu-
al dinner, which was followed by the an-

nu-
al dinner, which was followed by the an-

nu-
al dinner, which was followed by the an-

nu-
al dinner, which was followed by the an-

nu-
al dinner, which was followed by the an-

nu-
al dinner, which was followed by the an-

nu-
al dinner, which was followed by the an-

nu-
al dinner, which was followed by the an-

nu-
al dinner, which was followed by the an-

nu-
al dinner, which was followed by the an-

nu-
al dinner, which was followed by the an-

nu-
al dinner, which was followed by the an-

nu-
al dinner, which was followed by the an-

nu-
al dinner, which was followed by the an-

and of what other cities had done for organizations like the Blues.

Colonel Smith, of Philadelphia, who is the third of his family to be an honorary member of the Blues, then was forced to make a talk. He stated that he had come even further than Governor

Tyler to attend the celebration, and that the Blues could expect him to repeat his visit every year as long as he lived in Philadelphia and as long as Philadelphia was no further from Richmond than it is present. He ended his speech with an offer of help whenever the army committee might call on him. This was loudly applauded by the boys, among whom he has made many friends during his annual 10th of May visit.

Must Have Armory.

The other speakers were Captain Levy, who was one of the five war captains of the Blues; Mr. Everett Wadley, Mr. R. A.

Brook, General Phillips and Colonel

Dempsey, of the United States army.

Colonel Dempsey told of his acquaintance with the Blues as an organization, and the Blues as men, and paid the battalion a very high compliment. "But," he added, "it is absolutely essential that you get a decent armory if you wish to continue your career of usefulness. It points out that what was considered "good enough" in years past was considered insufficient at present, and urged the battalion to continue their efforts to get an armory "not immediately over a tobacco factory."

The afternoon was spent in pistol target practice until the time for return home arrived, when soldiers and citizens took the special cars back to the city.

Judge Garnett Orator.

Judge Theo. S. Garnett, a prominent Norfolk gentleman, well known in this city, spoke at the annual celebration, May 30th. Judge Garnett is a prominent Confederate soldier and holds a high official position in the United Confederate Veterans organization. He is a member of the State Library Board and is one of the best known lawyers of Eastern Virginia.

Operated on Mr. Chapin.

Mr. C. C. Chapin, of the firm of Chapin and Hume, was operated upon for appendicitis at the Virginia Hospital Tuesday night.

He is doing quite well.

Local Assessments.

The Committee on Local Assessments met last night and disposed of some routine matters.

Tired
Nervous

When you feel languid, tired, nervous and irritable, your vi-talities is low—your supply of nerve energy exhausted, and your system running down for lack of power.

The organs of the body are working poorly, or not at all, and you are not getting the nourishment needed. This soon impoverishes the blood and instead of throwing off the impurities, distributes it all through the body. This brings disease and misery.

Feed the nerves with Dr.

Miles' Nervine, a nerve food, a nerve medicine, that nourishes and strengthens the nerves, and see how quickly you will get strong and vigorous.

"My wife suffered with nervousness previous to a recent attack of typhoid fever, but after her recovery from that, she was unable to get on her feet, and was so nervous that she could hardly control herself being exceedingly nervous when the least excited.

She was very restless at night, and never had a good night's rest. She also suffered much from nervous headache. Dr. Miles' Nervine was recommended by a friend. After the first three doses she had a good night's rest, and at the end of the first week her treatment was wonderfully improved. Continued use of Nervine has completed her entire cure."

OTTO KOLB, 1021 Cherry St., Evansville, Ind.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the